(19:46) designosophy: I did some freelance for a design firm that did some jobs like this: 3 or 4 designers all submit a design. They submit it to their client. Whichever one the client chooses gets paid.

(19:46) gabediaz: Q4: don't do spec work, you as a designer and more importantly as a person are more deserving than doing free based work "hoping" to get paid

(19:46) iampariah: That IS why we all maintain portfolios, isn't it?

(19:47) sandoer: @gabediaz Right there with you. We have to stick to our guns.
